Statements

10

I authorise Social Security to obtain from external bodies all information that proves the statements I have made.

I am aware that:

- ▶ The authorisations and information provided will serve as the basis for the decision to grant, calculate and maintain the benefit I am applying for. These authorisations and information may change the amount of social benefits I am currently receiving.
- ▶ The Social Security services can consult my tax information to confirm my declared income.
Decree-Law no. 92/2004, of 20 de April
- ▶ The Social Security services will check my contributory situation for the granting and maintenance of the benefit.
- ▶ The effects of the authorisations end when the benefit or allowance payments cease. If I withdraw the authorisations provided to Social Security, the granting or payment of the current benefit or allowance may be suspended. I may also lose my entitlement to this and other social benefits.
- ▶ The non-submission of the authorisation statement or the relevant bank documents, when required and within the time limits established for this purpose, shall constitute grounds for suspending the procedure for granting the benefit or allowance concerned until the documents in question have been submitted.
Decree-Law no. 70/2010, of 16 de June, Article 14(2), updated version
- ▶ False statements are punished according to the law.

I undertake to:

- ▶ Provide complete and accurate information.
- ▶ Provide information about my income and assets.
- ▶ Submit any supporting documents that may be required.
- ▶ Keep the supporting documents for the duration of the benefit or allowance granting period and submit them whenever necessary.
- ▶ Communicate to Social Security within 5 business days any changes to the information I have provided.

Decree-Law no. 220/2006, of 3 de November, Article 42, updated version

- ▶ Submit to Social Security, if requested, the authorisation statements that allow information to be requested from the Bank of Portugal, to confirm the movable assets I am declaring. This information may include, among others, details concerning the banking and financial institutions where I hold an account, account balances and movable assets values. This commitment also applies to the statements that may need to be submitted by the other members of my household.
